

BALTIMORE & OHIO T-3

MOUNTAIN - HUGE VANDY OR RECTANGULAR TENDER

The T-3 Mountains is a must for any B&O collector or operator. In the early 1940s, the B&O decided to build "Mountain" type locomotives to help with the increase in traffic caused by the war effort. From 1942 to 1948 it built forty of them (Class T-3b, road numbers 5555 through 5594) in its Mt. Clare Shops in Baltimore, MD. The Class T-3s were retired in 1960. These Mountains have many features that are truly B&O. On the front you will find the round Capitol plate proudly displayed, there is a cab extension for the fireman as only B&O did them.

Sunset Models is bringing the B&O T-3b to you in stunning brass detail and in very limited quantities. 48" rad. 2R or 054 3 Rail Track.
